ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per R.K.Abichandani,J)

The Income-tax Appellate Tribunal has referred the following question which pertains to the assessment year 1988-89 for the opinion of this Court under section 256 (1) of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

"Whether on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the Tribunal is right in law and on facts in holding that the assessee is entitled to deduction of 40% of the incentive bonus towards expenses for earning the incentive bonus, when the assessee received the incentive bonus from its employer, namely, LIC of India ?"

2. Identical question came up for our consideration in ITR No. 54 of 1993 and other cognate matters with which the entire group was argued and for the reasons given by us in our judgment dated 27.4.1998, we hold that the Tribunal was right in holding that the assessee is entitled to deduction of the incentive bonus towards expenses for earning incentive bonus received from LIC by the assessee, but only to the extent of the reimbursement of expenses actually incurred upto the maximum limit of 30% of the incentive bonus earned by the assessee. The question referred to us is accordingly answered in the affirmative against the revenue and in favour of the assessee. The Reference stands disposed of with no order as to costs.
